

HUDSON RIVER VALLEY CALENDAR - 2012

The Hudson River Valley Calendar's 23rd Edition offers a scenic tour of one of America's most beautiful regions. The photographs highlight the dramatic seasonal color changes within this National Heritage Area, renowned for its captivating landscapes. This year, the 11" x 13" four-color wall calendar, published by Involvement Media, in association with Friends of the Hudson Valley, will pursue the theme A Vibrant Valley. The calendar regularly features dramatic scenes and historical landmarks within the captivating landscape which stretches from New York City to Saratoga Springs. National Heritage Sites like the Hudson Highlands State Park, West Point, Phillipsburg Manor and Vanderbilt Mansion are highlights of this National Heritage River's rich historical legacy. Ted Spiegel's photographs have illustrated many National Geographic articles and a shelf full of books. You can see this year's calendar images at tedspiegel.com or request a sample copy. Large writing blocks are provided for planning days and months. All of this makes it a unique decorative asset for the home, with proven potential as a promotional, holiday gift for institutions and businesses. For your customers or employees, it offers a yearlong sharing of the Hudson Valley's quality of life.
